Abacus Acquisition of Verity Recruiting

Abacus Technical Services, LLC, a Plano-based information technology services and staffing firm, today announced it has acquired Verity Recruiting Inc. based in Plano, TX. Verity provides IT staffing services to numerous Dallas based customers. Terms of the transactions were not disclosed.

Verity will initially continue to operate under its own brand as an Abacus company. "The culture match for both companies is evident, and each have a strong brand that we want to leverage in the marketplace for years to come," said Abacus CEO Steve Gunner.

 Verity and Abacus client base includes upper mid-market to Fortune 500 firms. "They have a very strong recruiting organization and an expanded service offering that will benefit the current Verity client base." said Verity CEO Mark Taylor, "in addition, Abacus has a strong communication platform between clients and with its employees."

=============

About Abacus

Abacus is an IT consulting and services firm that provides services to Fortune 1000 and mid-market customers. This is the 3rd acquisition Abacus has made in the last 3 years and continues to expand their customer base in Dallas/Ft. Worth.

About Verity Recruiting

Verity Recruiting is an IT staffing firm headquartered in Plano, Texas. The company was originally founded in 2004 and has a strong local reputation for providing quality services to a long-standing client base.